The recipe is Roi Choi's Instant Ramen

Roi Choi is a Korean American who was among the first to establish a food truck in Los Angeles, a Korean/Mexican fusion taco truck called Kogi Truck. His cookbook, LA Son, has been received with nationwide acclaim. He says of his ramen recipe: "It's our snack, it's our peanut butter and jelly sandwich, it's our bowl of cereal...it's something that has been a part of my life forever." The butter, egg and cheese help coat the ramen noodles and deepen their flavor.
